

FIVE CARS JUMP TRACK AT M'HENRY.

Engine Turns Over and Engineer and Fireman Instantly Killed.

Several Passengers Injured But None Seriously—Supt. Philbrick Has Close Call for His Life.

THE SCENE AS RELATED TO THE BEE BY AN EYE WITNESS.

Mr. Odie Davis, who was a passenger on the ill-fated I. C. passenger train 102 north bound, Friday, relates the accident as follows:

Passenger train No. 102, north bound from New Orleans to Louisville on the Illinois Central Road, was wrecked at McHenry Friday night. Engineer James Matthis and Fireman John Kerr, both of Louisville, were killed outright. The mail clerk and baggage master were slightly injured, 5 passenger coaches left the track and ten or twelve passengers were more or less injured.

No. 102 is a through train from New Orleans to Louisville. It was three hours behind time and was running at a high rate of speed. As the train approached the depot at McHenry it suddenly seemed to leap from the track. The engine turned completely over. The engineer and fireman were caught underneath it and killed outright. The baggage and mail cars and the three passenger coaches also left the track and piled up in the ditch.

A wrecking train from Central City was sent out. All the physicians of the town were pressed into service and sent on the train to care for the injured crew and the passengers.

The agent at McHenry says the train left the track about 100 yards before it reached the depot and ran along on the ties at a terrific rate of speed. When the depot was reached the engine left the track and crashed into a trestle on the side track.

It is believed the wreck was caused by the track of the engine striking a projection on the side of a coal dump or running over a pile of coal near the dump.

Supt. Philbrick had a close call for his life, as he intended to ride with the engineer and had gotten in the engine at Central City. Just before the train pulled out someone called him from the cab and while they were talking the train pulled out, thus causing him to catch one of the coaches.

Mr. Philbrick was in the sleeper at the time of the accident and was uninjured.

HENDERSON COTTON MILLS CLOSE DOWN.

800 Out of Employment.

Eight hundred people, comprising the working population of Audubon, a Henderson suburb, were thrown out of employment when the big cotton mill closed down for an indefinite period. The operators claim that the close-down is on account of the scarcity and high price of cotton.

This is the first time in its history of seventeen years that this organization has stopped work. The weekly pay roll of the mills amounts to something like $3,000.

The reasons given by the management for closing down the mill are as follows:

"The speculators have put up the price of cotton fully two cents above its statistical or market value and at the present price of middling cotton the mill would stand to lose fully if not more than $100 a day at the present market price of goods."

Two deputy sheriffs were sworn in to guard the mill property.

It is a wise man who knows when he has said enough.

ASSOCIATION OF EMPLOYERS.

Louisville Business Men Also Organizing For Self Protection.

The Employers' Association of Louisville was organized in that city Monday, after considerable preliminary work among the manufacturers and business men of Kentucky's metropolis preparing the way for a general getting together on protective lines. The objects of the association are set forth as:

First—To protect its members in their right to manage their respective businesses in such lawful manner as they may deem proper.

Second—The adoption of a uniform legitimate system, whereby members may ascertain who is and who is not worthy of their employment.

Third—The investigation and adjustment, by the proper officers or committees of the association, of any question arising between members and their employees, when such question will be submitted to the association for adjustment.

Fourth—To endeavor to make it possible for any person to obtain employment without being obliged to join a labor organization, and to encourage all such persons in their efforts to resist the compulsory methods of organized labor.

Fifth—To protect its members in such manner as may be deemed expedient and proper against legislative, municipal and other political encroachments.

Parry on Labor Union.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 17.—The Piano Manufacturers' Association and the Piano Dealers' Association met in separate conventions here today. The associations represent an invested capital of about $100,000,000. The Dealers' Association elected the following officers:

President, Henry Dreher, Cleveland.

First Vice President, J. C. Miller, Philadelphia.

Second Vice President, Phillip Werleio, New Orleans.

Secretary, Geo. E. Bradnack, Middletown, N. Y.

Among the speakers was D. M. Parry, President of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"The never ending procession of strikes," said Mr. Parry, "and the demands of organized labor are arousing a fear that chaos in place of order will soon be the rule."

He condemned conciliation as now carried out, as unjust, because it means taking the demands of the union and scaling them down one-half.

"Anyone who objects to such arbitration, we are told, is against the golden rule," said Mr. Parry. "It is remarkable the number of men who are advertising themselves as humble followers of the golden rule. It seems to have become an excellent phrase with which to boost one's self into public office."

"If conciliatory arbitration must come as the noted Senator says, then I should like to know if it will be permitted for the employers to make demands and have them arbitrated. It is a poor rule that does not work both ways."

Drunken men are having trouble in the Garrard county capital. The officers of the law are arresting all inebriated citizens, without ceremony.

Washington county farmers have been putting in some good weeks planting tobacco in the past few days. Tobacco growers in that county are very enthusiastic over the outlook for their crops.

The operation was entirely successful and the patient is getting along nicely. SEBREE BLINDTIGERITS

JAILED AT OWENSBORO.

Thought They Had Dodged the Law But a Crooked License Did Not Protect.

The following dispatch from Owensboro has a local interest for Bee readers for the reason that Earlinton officers took a hand in the detection of these violators of Sebree local option and the revenue laws that Uncle Sam is looking after closely these days:

Owensboro, Ky., May 14.—Charles Harris and Jesse Melton were brought here this afternoon by Deputy United States Marshal Gilliland and lodged in jail. They were arrested at Sebree for selling whisky without license. They were indicted at the last sitting of the Federal grand jury.

These men were arrested some months ago through the efforts of the Sebree authorities, assisted very materially by City Marshal Lindle and Deputy Clark, both of Earlinton. They were taken to Owensboro where they managed to secure license dated back to cover the time in which the offense was committed and the Commissioner could do nothing else but release them.

Under a more recent construction of the law, however, these men have been arrested under indictment by the last Federal grand jury and must answer the charge.

YALE STUDENTS ARE GOOD STRIKE BREAKERS.

College Men Take Striking Teamsters' Places and Make Better Hands.

New Haven, Conn., May 14.—Yale men have undertaken to break the teamsters' strike here. A party of them, who refused to give their names, offered their services to the employers today. They were gladly accepted, and during the morning a number of youths, who were quite evidently unused to the work, were seen dressed in overalls and jumpers, guiding two and four and in some cases six horses through the city streets.

W. A. Bishop of the firm of Peck and Bishop, said: "We are getting more work out of the Yale men than we do out of our regular hands. They are hustlers. Many of them have refused to accept pay for the work, saying they are in sympathy with us and are willing to help break the strike. The men say they are not afraid, but we asked for police protection for them in such places as we think they would be apt to meet with trouble."

It is rumored that one of the principal members of the crowd of Yale strike breakers is the son of a wealthy team owner in Chicago, who was affected by the great teamster strike in that city. The story goes that during the Chicago strike a brother of the young man went on one of his father's teams and was killed in a riot with the strikers. This is said to have spurred the Yale man on to assist the local boss teamsters and lead the movement to break the strike.

STRIKE AT A FUNERAL

Hearse Was Driven by Non-Union Man—Other Drivers Quit.

Toledo, O., May 18.—During the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Mary Kamm here the drivers of the hack struck and refused to work because the hearse was driven by a non-union man. The officiating undertakers filled the strikers' places just in time to prevent a scene, as the casket containing the remains was being taken to the hearse just as the affair was straightened.

EARLINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL

Closes With the Best Entertainment of the Kind Ever Given Here.

PROGRAM WAS INTERESTING. OPERA HOUSE WAS PACKED.

The closing exercises of the Earlinton public school was greeted Friday night by the largest audience that ever entered the opera house. Every seat was occupied and several parties stood throughout the program. There were 18 numbers on the program, all of which were interesting. The Jolly Jubbas, Owl and Pussy Cat and Boopas Drill were received with enthusiastic applause. The Scene at the Ticker Office and Jumping Jacks were extremely amusing and were greatly enjoyed. The Pantomime was the best thing on the program and a great number of favorable comments were made on it. The school children all did exceedingly well and took great interest in the preparation for the closing exercises and were as eager as the teachers to make them a success. Miss Maud Boardland, the principal, Misses Lella Dean, Nellie Carlin and Mary Motherhead, her able assistants, should feel highly encouraged, not only at the excellent showing the children made in their examination, but at the beautiful work they did in the entertainment Friday night. Miss Boardland is one of the best teachers in the state and has up to date ideas in regard to teaching children and never lets an opportunity pass that she can use to their advantage. FIGHT FOR HIS SON

Green River Farmer Trying to Get His Boy From Indiana.

A special from Evansville says: Leonard J. Shutt, of Kentucky, has brought habeas corpus proceedings in the Vanderburg County Circuit Court here against the Board of Children's Guardians asking for the custody of his son, Willie Shutt, aged 9. The Shutt boy was abandoned by his mother in this city over a year ago and was finally turned over to the Children's Home. The father, who lives in the Green River section of Kentucky, did not know the whereabouts of the boy. About a year ago the boy was kidnapped while on his way from school and taken to Corydon, Ky., where he was turned over to a farmer named Bennett. George Webb was arrested for kidnapping the boy and three weeks ago was sentenced to the State prison for a period of from two to fourteen years. It was the first case of a conviction in a kidnapping case in this part of the State. A motion for new trial is now on before the court. The managers of the Children's Home are fighting the application of the elder Shutt on the ground that it is for the purpose of taking away the boy in order to free Webb, as the lad was the main witness in the trial against Webb. Shutt is a well-to-do farmer and it was contended by the officers that the boy was kidnapped by Webb and was being held for a ransom.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that.

Mr. C. B. Metre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely. It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. The newest thing in flinch gossip is the game to be played between East and West Earlington with five couples on a side, of course the idea originated in the fertile brain of W. S. McGary who is a flinch player from way back.

Cautions!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are to be cured by the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1888 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschoe's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the night, Boschoe's German Syrup, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

When All Other Remedies and Physicians Fail.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies and rest for tired, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollient skin cures, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent Pills. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply skin and scaly humors, with loss of hair, of infants and children, as well as adults, and is sure to succeed when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

The agonizing itching and burning the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worried parents, as in milk crust, fretter and salt rheum, — all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the speed to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cures, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

A PSALM OF FISH.

Blue G. Bard.

Tell me not in accents mournful
That the black bass will not bite,
Or the hammer-headed catfish
Do not take the bait at night.

We have seen 'em, we have caught
'em.
Up at Rumsy near the locks,
Where through seas of mud we waded,
Minus coat and shoes and socks.

In Green river's broad dimensions,
When the fish run up the stream,
With a bucket filled with minnows
You can catch them; "that's no dream."

Lives of fishermen remind us
We may strive for prizes grand,
And, departing, leave behind us
Tales of fish we failed to land.

Tales that perhaps some other
Fisherman with eager zeal
May concoct a larger story
Of a capture with his reel.

Let us then be up and doing,
For the summer waxes late,
We can catch 'em if we only
Use the Win. Shakespeare bait.

A DAY'S OUTING.

Party of Earlingtonians Visit Dawson
Sunday.

A gay party of young people left this city early Sunday morning for the cliffs near Dawson Springs, and after much trouble in keeping Jim Maloney and Word Todd out of the lunch baskets and a jolly ride of three hours, arrived at their destination with light hearts and a keen appetite.

After a round of cliff climbing and snake killing the crowd was gratified with the sight of chicken, ham, eggs, cake, pickles, delicious fruits, and other toothsome food, which soon vanished. After the noon lunch it fell to the lot of Misses Jimmie Keele and Nannie Browning, James Morelan and Word Todd to wash dishes, which they did with diligent and dirty pocket handkerchiefs. The merry crowd after waiting awhile to their many new-made Dawson acquaintances started for home at 5:27 p. m. A stopover for supper at Crabtree was allowed by the chaperones, and here, where Charlie Webb showed his intuition as a clerk, while buying sugar of an accommodating matron, and setting the price himself with the plea, "I sell sugar, myself, I know what it's worth." The ride home was an enjoyable one to every member of the happy crowd.

At 8:30 the party reached home and, after thanking their chaperones for their efficient service, retired to their respective homes. The following composed the crowd:

CHAPERONES:
Mrs. O. F. Webb Mrs. Doshon

MISSSES:
Jimmie Keele Mayme Rice
Laura Stodghill Nannie Browning
Anna Rice Beale Combs.

MESSES:
Word Todd Euclous Adams
Chas. Webb Elbert Drake
Edward Adams Jewel Alb

PROF. DENOVY,
"Dr. FARRANS,
"Physician to the Hotel Dieu."

The material progress Mississippi has made under Prohibition, and attracting wide attention. Since no license laws went into effect the state is making a record that is probably not surpassed by that of any other southern state, or in the rate of progress by any state in the Union. The increase in the assessed value of the state for the last three years is $29,718,377. The total assessed valuation is $240,980,120. The state tax levy is 6 mills, a decrease of a half mill since 1900. Railroads have increased 286 miles in these three years.

Mr. H. W. Davis is engaged in what we believe will prove very effective work, in the city of Louisville. He is beginning where the work is undoubtedly most needed, in the leading churches of the city. We do not mean by this that the members of these churches need to be reformed, but that they need to be aroused to a realization of the enormity of the liquor traffic. It is the apathy of indifference of the Christian church, that makes the licensed saloon possible. Wherever the church is aroused to a sense of its fearful responsibility, and the courage to vote as they pray, the liquor traffic is doomed.

In a recent number of THE BEE, this department contained a reference to the placards which the officer in charge, had posted in conspicuous places in the city of Paris. Below we present to our readers the full text of the placards.

"Alcoholism is chronic poisoning, resulting from the habitual use of alcohol, even when it does not produce drunkenness."

"It is an error to say that alcohol is necessary for workmen who are obliged to do fatiguing work, that it puts heart into their work, or that it restores their strength; the artificial excitement which it brings quickly gives place to nervous depression and weakness; in reality, alcohol is useful to no one and harmful to everybody."

"The habit of drinking spirits leads quickly to alcoholism, but many so-called wholesome beverages contain alcohol. The man who takes every day a quantity of wine, cider or beer, be it ever so small, becomes diseased as certainly as he who drinks brandy."

"So-called appetizing drinks and liquors are the most pernicious, because they contain, besides alcohol, essences which are in themselves powerful poisons."

"The habit of drinking leads to family discord, forgetfulness of all duties, hairpin work, misery, robbery and crime."

"It leads at least to the hospital, for alcoholism engenders the most varied and deadly diseases, paralysis, madness, affections of the stomach and liver, and dropsy. It is one of the most frequent causes of consumption. In fact, it complicates and aggravates all acute maladies. A case of typhoid, pneumonia, or erysipelas, which would take a mild form in a sober man, is rapidly fatal to the man who indulges in alcohol. Drinking habits in parents injuriously affect their children. If they live beyond the first few months they are in danger of a record that is probably not surpassed by that of any other southern state, or in the rate of progress by any state in the Union. The increase in the assessed value of the state for the last three years is $29,718,377. The total assessed valuation is $240,980,120. The state tax levy is 6 mills, a decrease of a half mill since 1900. Railroads have increased 286 miles in these three years."

MINES AND MINING NEWS

Mr. Lee Wolf, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., has purchased an interest in what was known as the Kings-ton Coal Mine, between Nortonville and Mornings Gap on the line of the L. & N. This company will now be known as the Wolf-Kingston Mine.

G. B. Burden told Henry Jenkins, an employee of the Oak Hill Coal Co., fox hunting Monday night. They had four good dogs and had unusual luck, getting the fox started by eight o'clock. After an all night run they returned home about daylight. Jenkins says he likes fox hunting but an all night run is a little too much for him.

The chain that hauls the empty cars from No. 9 broke at the top of the slope Monday. There were 16 empty cars attached to it and went rapidly down the slope. A colored boy rode the cars from top to bottom and was uninjured. Two or three of the cars were mashed and otherwise injured.

No. 11 did not run Tuesday on account of the scarcity of cars.

A meeting of the directors and stockholders of the St. Bernard Mining Co. was held in their office at this place Monday and Tuesday.

Dan M. Evans, C. H. McGary, and Ed Phillips, of the St. Bernard Mining Co., left for Owensboro Tuesday night to attend the Knight Templar Conclave to be held in that city May 20th and 21st. The boys looked well in their new uniform.

A four horse wagon containing four coal cars passed through Madisonville Monday going to some mine on the I. C. R. R. The driver either did not know or would not tell the name of the place they were consigned to. These cars appeared to be much larger than the cars used at this place.

Gradually the patient mule of the mines is being supplanted by electric power. Don't know but what we would just as soon be kicked by a mule as have several thousand volts of electricity connect with our anatomy.

At a meeting held recently between a number of mine operators and officials, to adjust certain matters that were in controversy, one of the operators said:

"That where abnormal conditions existed, for his part, he was willing to make satisfactory adjustment, but he did not think that the miners had any grievance in the point at issue."

When he had finished speaking one of the miners' officials, who had not been favored with many educational advantages in his youth, said:

"We contend that abnormal conditions do exist in this case, and we ask for a proper and fair settlement, in view of those abnormal conditions which we have just shown, and if we don't get it we shall be obliged to quit work."

The mine operators took the question under advisement and are yet puzzled as to the real conditions cited.

The Central Federated Union, of New York City, advised a strike of the laborers employed on the underground tunnel and in excavations for new buildings and then endorsed the strike. These laborers are mostly Italian, many of whom have not been in this country but a few weeks or months and are unable to speak a word of English. These foreigners earned at home from 25 to 40 cents per day, but now demand $2.00 per day of eight hours. The contractors on the tunnel and other work of this kind refuse to grant these demands, hence a great amount of building work has ceased and the mechanics of the C. F. U. are now idle. Not in years have there been so many idle mechanics in New York. The foreigners evidently heard of the Kentucky methods of the U. M. W., under Chappell, Wood, Barnaby, Wells & Co., and have attempted to drive and shoot out the new labor that is taking the places made vacant by the strikers. Even women arm themselves with knives, daggers and other weapons and join the men, similarly armed, in these attacks. The New York police, however, are rendering excellent protection to the man who wanted to work, and the strike, fomented by vicious labor agitators, among whom is one Herman Robinson, is about broken up.

HOSPITABLE NEW ORLEANS

Never Made Such Lavish Preparations as Now For Confederates.

New Orleans, May 18.—One hundred thousand visitors within her gates and more arriving on every train, 10,000 veteran old soldiers of the Confederacy as her special charge and hundreds more upon the way, bands of men clad in the ancient gray parading through the streets, the crash of bands and the cheers of thousands who line the thoroughfare—that is the situation in New Orleans' tonight on the eve of the thirteenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans.

Never in the history of the city have such lavish preparations been made for the reception and entertainment of people from abroad as have been made for this occasion, and from all appearances they will be successful to the last degree. The local committees are thoroughly up in these work, and quarters are provided for all who come as soon as they ask for them. All over the city the hospitable citizens have thrown open their doors, the hotels are filled to overflowing, and thousands of the old soldiers have taken quarters in the camp at the Fair grounds, where excellent arrangements have been made for housing and entertaining them.

HOPKINS is one of the three counties in the State that have closely approached in subscriptions to the Kentucky Exhibit Association fund the amount they would have had to pay had the State made an appropriation of $10,000 for Kentucky's representation at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition next year. The other counties are Boyd, which has subscribed $900, and Muhlenberg, which has contributed $720. Hopkins' subscriptions to date amount to $1,000 and are divided as follows:

Reinecke Coal Mining Co., Madisonville.....$325.00
St. Bernard Mining Co., Earlington.....500.00
Victoria Coal Co., Madisonville.....175.00

It is the belief of officers of the Association that several additional large subscriptions will come out of our county, running the total above $1,500 and perhaps $2,000.

The Exhibit Association has asked us to receive any additional subscriptions that citizens may desire to make and we have in our office some of the subscription blanks being sent out by the organization. Subscriptions to the fund will also be received by any member of the Association, those for Hopkins being I. Bailey, C. C. Giveus, R. Laffoon, Madisonville; R. B. Bradley, Barnsley; J. L. Rogers, Nebo; Col. John B. Atkinson and James R. Rash, Earlington.

Among the other counties already represented on the subscription books of the Kentucky Exhibit Association are Ballard, Barren, Bell, Boone, Boyle, Bracken, Breckinridge, Campbell, Carroll, Clark, Crittenden, Fayette, Franklin, Grant, Henderson, Hickman, Jefferson, Jessamine, Johnson, Kenton, Laurel, Lawrence, Livingston, Lyon, McCracken, Madison, Marion, Mason, Montgomery, Nicholas, Spencer, Trigg, Union, Warren, Whitley. Few of these counties have contributed sums equal to their apportionment under a State appropriation, but their citizens are at work and they will make a good showing. Barren has raised $150; Bell, $158; Carroll, $202.40; Crittenden, $200; Fayette, $2,048; Kenton, $1,550; Laurel, $100; Lawrence, $150; Livingston, $100; Mason, $813.38; Montgomery, $300; Whitley, $225. Louisville alone has subscribed about $12,000 and will raise several thousand more.

We see many of the newspapers are using the union label on them. This is all right if suits the outfit. We have no comments to offer or suggestions to make. But when the Unions demand that the union label be placed on all moneys issued by the government we think it is a little too much unionism. It is not at all improbable that the next modest request made by the unions will be to change the present design on the coin of the country and substitute a likeness of John Mitchell with the union label under it. Wouldn't it be great to see the motto: "In him we trust" placed over his photo on our silver dollars.

The Earlington Bee is the best advertising medium in Hopkins County. Try it and see.

TRADES unionism is growing seedy in New York, where Italians, lately landed, have been bearing about banners with the inscription: "American labor for American workingmen." Many of these Italians have been employed in the Rapid Transit tunnel work, and here these Italians have been rioting violently for the past several days. Desperate attempts have been made to dynamite the tunnel and numerous battles with the police have occurred. These "Americans" cannot speak a word of English, many of them, but they serve the purpose of the socialist labor agitator.

MID-SUMMER RAIL-ROAD EDITION.

The Bee Will Issue Illustrated Number Devoted to Henderson Division L & N.

INTERESTING HISTORIC DATA WILL BE PUBLISHED FOR FIRST TIME.

THE BEE's special mid-summer railroad edition will be one of the best railroad papers ever issued in Kentucky. In addition to the personal write-ups of the railroad men of the Henderson Division and the half-tone cuts, it will contain views of important railroad buildings along the line, such as the new passenger station at Evansville, the round-houses at Howell and Earlington, the depot at Earlington and other places and views of passenger and freight trains. A complete history of the Henderson Division from the time it was surveyed up to the present time, the changes it has undergone and a cross-section of interesting railroad data will be given in this edition.

A great many of the men on the division have already subscribed for copies of the mid-summer edition and others are subscribing every day. We wish to make this a thoroughly creditable special edition of the Bee and want the co-operation of every railroad man on the Henderson Division. It is gotten up in their interest and benefit, and consequently should receive their liberal patronage.

W. F. Sheridan, our recent train master said before he left for Mexico that a railroad paper of this character was worth $5 to any H. D. railroad man now and in the course of time would be worth $30, on account of the personal write-ups of the men if nothing else.

All of the dispatchers, including the chief, several conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen have already signed contracts for copies of the edition. Foreman L. H. O'Brien is a subscriber, as is also Mr. Walsh and Jno. W. Logsdon, of Evansville. We want every employee of the H. D. to get this edition of The Bee and feel sure it is well worth the price asked.

Cheap Homes in Texas and Arkansas.

GATLIN GETS BAIL.

Only One Witness Saw the Two Men Meet—Says Beverly Made Demonstration.

Henderson, Ky., May 16.—W. E. Gatlin, who shot and killed Cabell Beverly on the street in this city two months ago and who has twice been refused bond by the lower courts, was today admitted bail in the sum of $7,000 by Circuit Judge John L. Dorsey after a partial hearing of the case. Gatlin's father is reputed to be worth half a million dollars and is here ready to furnish any bond required.

In granting the bond the court said in substance: "There has been introduced in this hearing only one living witness who saw the men meet and what transpired between them before Gatlin fired the first shot. That witness says Beverly, the dead man, had made many threats shortly before the killing that he would kill Gatlin, and thrust his hand in his pocket, thus making a demonstration to carry into effect his threats."

Gatlin will furnish the bond before night.

Gatlin's bond was signed by the Henderson National Bank and approved by the court.

NOTHING LIKE UNIONISM.

The Office Boy Sees Its Benificent Influence in the Calendar.

"Dat's all right; but has yer read 'em?"

A prolonged yell went up at the idea of reading a calendar. "I tell yer dis year nineteen-'ree is de bestest year yet. Yes see den red floggers wot shows de Sundays and der holidays—dis time dey comes in pairs. Dere's Washington's birthday—dat comes on Sunday, and we got two easy ones a-runnin'. "Who makes de calendar?"

"Why, de printer, yer mutt. Don't yer see de union label? Dat's what organized labor is doin' for us poor workin' men."—Dry Goods Guide.

REVENUE OFFICIAL TAKES AN ILLEGAL DISTILLERY.

Incidentally Makes Impromptu Temperance Talk.

That Deputy Collector Randall is possessed of a fine literary ability, and will make a successful story writer if he ever decides to give up the chasing of "moonshiners" was demonstrated by the receipt of a report from him of a capture of a distillery at Blackwater Creek this week. Part of the report describes the capture of the moonshiner, and reads as follows:

"At 1 o'clock in the morning we left the glades, and after riding two hours we reached the place and had no trouble in locating the plant. It was not being operated, so we concealed ourselves nearby, and three hours later we were rewarded for our long wait by seeing a distiller walk in and begin work as though he were at a registered distillery. After watching his movements for a while, we eased up quietly until we were within a few feet of the plant. I said:

"'Good morning.' I wish you could have seen him at that moment. He looked up with a smile to return our greeting, but when he recognized us the blood seemed to leave his face and the pleasant look in his eyes changed instantly to one of fear. He seemed to be suddenly taken with severe chills. His knees began to shake, and a bunch of kindling wood in his left hand fell to the ground. His tongue refused to act. There he stood, shivering, the perfect picture of guilt. At last he pulled himself together to say: 'Well, this beats the devil.'"

"I answered: 'You are right. We've got the devil beaten this time. It becomes my painful duty to dissect and burn him. You can cover your face if you are not strong enough to witness the operation, for it will in the end prove fatal. Yet, it is the best and for your good. Devils of this character must register for use before operations begin.'"

"Mr. Randall was in Louisville last week, and this is the first that has been heard about him since he left. —Louisville Herald.

DIDN'T KNOW HIS UNCLE.

Henderson Boy Made an Amusing Inquiry About "Uncle Sam."

A youngster at Henderson, who has some kind of a notion, heard a good deal of talk about "Uncle Sam" at the time of the recent visit of the Monitor Arkansas to Henderson and Evansville, and himself was an interested visitor upon the deck of that splendid fighting machine. Finally he said: "Mother, is 'Uncle Sam' your brother, or Father's brother?"

Garth Thompkins to Hang.

Garth Thompkins, the negro who murdered Jim Brame at Madisonville on the night of Dec. 24th, 1902, has been sentenced to hang for the crime. Thompkins bore a bad reputation and had served one term in the pen for house breaking. While he was serving this term his wife secured a divorce and married Brame, an industrious colored miner. When Thompkins was released he came to Madisonville and began a series of persecutions for Brame and his wife, the end of which was the shooting of Brame in the back without cause. This will be the first legal hanging in Hopkins county for thirty-five years, and is the fifth one ever held in the county. The date for the execution has not yet been announced.

Time was when a man who wore a Summer Suit, coat and trousers, sacrificed peace of mind to comfort of the body. Cool, but looked like a fright; coat looked like a rag in a week's wear. Too many of them are still as bad as that; look cheap, feel cheap, are cheap. You will see a great difference if you buy your suit of us. We handle only the best makes, suits that fit right, wear right, hang right, prices right.

Mrs. Ashby and her eleven year old son Robert, went to the Winstead residence about 10 o'clock last night to pay a call, the boy ran on ahead and reached the house a few minutes before his mother arrived began knocking loudly on the door. Mrs. Winstead who is a nervous delicate woman, was startled and when she boy replied in a coarse voice that she would know when he got inside. By this time Mrs. Winstead was badly frightened and snatching up the gun emptied its contents through the door. The boy was so terrified he struck the little fellow in the chest.

BARGAINS GALORE

During the remainder of the month of May we will quote exceedingly low prices on every article in the house

Now is Your Time.

If you have delayed your buying of your summer Dress, either of Woolen Goods, Lawns, or the ready-to-wear, you have certainly played in good luck by the delay as you can get the choice of as good a line of these goods as you formerly had and best of all, they can be procured at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES, as we find ourselves too greatly loaded down with Summer Goods at this season of the year and are therefore compelled to install some way of reducing our immense stock by offering Cut Price Inducements right at a time when every other merchant is reaping his harvest.

To the Men.

If you have as yet not bought your Spring Suit, now is the chance of your lifetime for obtaining one at a very small cost to you; also your Summer Underwear, Shirts, Straw Hats, Shoes, etc., as you will find us no less than 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the city, for the reason that we are making an especial effort to close some of these lines during the remainder of this month.

Housekeeper's Chance.

Those of you that have as yet not cleaned house will be helped very materially by buying MATTINGS, CARPETS, and CURTAINS of us this month, as these goods must be disposed of before the real hot weather sets in, so do not delay this buying any longer, but come to us at once, and let us send you away better pleased with your purchases in this line by getting your pick of the Nicest Line of These Goods in the City.

Long Buried Whisky.

"I see that another search is being made for the Twilight City," said Geo. Hoskins, of Omaha, the other day. "When you talk of looking for buried treasure and hunting for the gold hidden by pirates, don't overlook the fact that out in the winding bend of the Missouri river is a bonanza which puts all the tales of Capt. Kidd in the shade."

"Four hundred barrels of whisky, over 50 years old, lie somewhere between Omaha and St. Joseph, Mo., and the man who finds them will have a fortune for the rest of his days. It has been disputed that the whisky has been improved by age, as it is doubtful whether it has had a chance to evaporate sufficiently. But I would be willing to take chances on its quality, especially as the romantic story of its loss and the attempt to find it would be sure to give it a good price."

"Along in 1833 the Twilight City set out from Louisville with a cargo of whisky and supplies for the Northwest. Gold hunters were making big stakes on both slopes of the Rockies, and prospectors were willing to pay good prices for whisky. The steamboat carried about as good a brand of Bourbon as ever went out of the Bluegrass State. She took on more supplies at St. Louis, and proceeded up the Missouri. Everything went all right until the boat passed St. Joseph. But one night the packet struck a snag and sank in the middle of the channel."

"Ordinarily it would have been easy enough to recover the cargo of the packet, but unusual conditions accompanied the voyage of the Twilight City. The pilot did not know the river very well. There was danger of attack by Indians, for it must be remembered that 50 years ago Omaha was nothing but a trading post. For this reason no immediate attempt was made to raise the boat. The shifting bed of the Missouri did the rest. A big freshet came in the following spring, and the turbid stream selected a new channel. The owners thought they would be able to find traces of their boat, but the quicksands had buried the packet until not even the smoke-stack was visible."

"For years efforts have been made to find the Twilight City. Excavations have been made in the old bed and steam drills have been set to work over the spot where it was thought the vessel had gone down. Thousands of dollars have been spent in the search. About a month ago some capitalists, who had been interested in a former effort to find the lost boat, got a trace of an old man who was a cabin boy on the packet at the time she sank. He claimed to be able to show the position of the boat, and produced an old chart of the river which was used 50 years ago. This syndicate expects to find the liquid treasure, whose value some are enthusiastic enough to value at $500,000."—New York Press.

Telephone Answers.

"The line's busy," replied the washday who was asked to hang out another hamperful of clothes. "They're talking now," replied the man who was asked about his wife and mother-in-law.

"In trouble," was the answer when a man wanted to see an acquaintance who had lately been married.

"Number, please," said the Utah court clerk, when the prisoner admitted that he had more than one wife.—Ex.

FLINCH CONTEST

Was a Decided Success. All Present Had a Pleasant Time and Enjoyed Themselves Thoroughly.

EARLINGTON WON BY A SLIGHT MARGIN.

The flinch contest that took place between Madisonville and Earlington at Temple Theatre at this place Thursday night was in every particular a success. The ten couple of Madisonville flinchers made Earlington play as she never played before and at the end of the tenth game the honors were even. A majority present expressed a desire to play the eleventh game as a deciding game and Earlington won by the skin of her teeth. It was a splendid contest, a close game and an undercurrent of perceptible excitement was apparent throughout the contest. It was agreed by the contestants that the games were to be played in silence as far as possible, and during the actual playing nothing was heard save the ominous cry of "flinch" as some luckless player overlooked his or her hand and failed to play from their flinch pile when the opportunity presented.

During the entire eleven games the score keepers, Mr. E. L. Hendricks, of Madisonville, and Mr. G. C. Atkinson, of this city, were kept busy calling the roll and marking up the players who lost or won. The judges had very few questions to decide and all decisions made were satisfactory to all concerned. After the eleventh game suitable refreshments were served and the incidents of the different games were discussed. Miss Catherine Tate was the champion of Madisonville, winning 9 out of 11, and Mr. Frank D. Rash was Earlington's champion, winning 8 out of 11. The following is a complete record of the eleven games:

Gen. Howard Wants to End Kentucky Feuds.

Middlesboro, Ky., May 18.—Gen. O. O. Howard, founder of the Lincoln Memorial School at Cumberland Gap, and other institutions, is riding alone through the mountains of Eastern Kentucky to investigate the conditions with a view to ending feuds.

Gen. Howard, who goes on horseback, will ride through Breathitt, Letcher and Harlan counties, ending his trip at Grant-Lee Hall, Cumberland Gap.

The man who does not understand his occupation is naturally surprised at his repeated failures.
